

GIRLS TENNIS

Lady T drop T

By Tom Perkins
Special Writer

It looked as if it Belleville's tennis program might have been in over its head in the Mega White following a season opening 6-2 loss to Edsel Ford, but the Tigers proved they can hang in their new division by bouncing back two days later with a convincing 8-0 win over Taylor Truman.

Edsel Ford played in the Mega Red last season, and Truman played in the Blue with Belleville, so head coach Andrea Sprague is eager to see how her team fare's against the rest of the division.

"We've kind of played both ends, so it will be interesting to see what it's like in the middle," she said.

Sprague was particularly pleased with the performance of varsity newcomers Deja Snodgroff and Joelle Laginess, who

CLASSIFIED
CLASSIFIED
CLASSIFIED

works in many ways

NEW HOMES
available in Chelsea
From the Low $200s

Michigan's #1 Home Builder
Open Daily 11am-6pm • Pulte.com/Detroit

Call 734-475-8322

Above is Erica Mozdy running one of the events from the March 31 meet vs. Romulus. And left is Jordan Hayes

Photos by Phil Hecksel

remain in the field events, Belleville's 800-meter relay